

Carousel Brainstorming

Description

What better way to review or assess students learning that to have up, moving and engaged!

Materials

- Chart paper (one sheet for each group of 4-5 students)
- Markers (a different color for each group of 4-5 students)

Teacher Preparation

Prepare topics on chart paper.

Procedure

1. Divide students into groups of four or five. Distribute a marker to each group; pick a different marker for each group)
2. Explain the activity:
Have each group stand in front of one of the pieces of chart paper. Allow 2 minutes to respond to the statement/prompt. When time is called, all teams rotate clockwise to the next chart paper.
3. If a team agrees with the statement that was written before, they may place a dot beside the statement(s). If they wish to add new thoughts, simply record them below.
4. Repeat until all groups have been to all charts.
5. Ask the groups return to the chart where they began. Challenge them to summarize the statements to share with the entire group as a debriefing opportunity.
